

SGVCOG Regional Objective Design Standards Share Your Thoughts

The SGVCOG is developing regional Objective Design Standards which cities can use to regulate the design of new multifamily residential and mixed-use projects in compliance with new state laws that limit local control.

The SGVCOG is collecting input from SGV residents and stakeholders to inform the drafting of the standards.

Your input is fundamental!

Please share your input by completing the online comment form at the link below: https://www.sgvcog.org/reap

